A. CHAMBERS ADDRESSES ELECTORS AT FULFORD HALL

FULFORD, Feb. 21.—Alan Chambers, Liberal candidate for the Nanaimo federal riding, addressed a well attended meeting at the Community Hall, Fulford, on Saturday evening.

It was evident, said Mr. Chambers, that the Leader of the Opposition (Mr. Manion) had nothing else in mind when the recent session of the House was called but to make political capital out of any and everything he possibly could. He praised the actions of the Prime Minister in dissolving the House, as being the only effective and democratic way of allowing the voters of the Dominion to say just what their desire in the way of Canada's war effort should be.

Comparing the actions of the Government at this time with that of the Government in power at the declaration of war in 1914, Mr. Chambers believed that the memories of the electors were not so short but that they could draw their own comparisons, and he, personally, was not afraid of the answer.

Mr. Manion had made a public accusation against the Government, stating that a B.C. unit had been sent overseas with the First Canadian Division, improperly and inadequately clothed and that a large number of the men had as a result been too sick to board the transport at the Atlantic seaboard. This accusation, said Mr. Chambers, was wholly without foundation, and as only one unit had

J. A. SULLIVAN ADDRESSES SUPPER GROUP

The monthly meeting of the Men's Supper Group was held on Wednesday, last week, 36 sitting down to supper prepared and served in the usual efficient manner by the Women's Association of St. Paul's United Church.

The Rev. D. M. Perley introduced the speaker of the evening, J. A. Sullivan, inspector of high schools. This gentleman gave a most interesting account of his experiences on a trip through Great Britain, Fiji Islands, New Zealand and Australia.

Following the address questions were asked and a general discussion ensued to the pleasure and profit of the evening.

A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Mr. Sullivan and the proceedings terminated with the national anthem.

The event took place, as usual, in Wesley Hall, Third Street, Sidney.

The next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, March 13th.

PLAN TO RAISE FUNDS FOR INSURANCE

FULFORD, Feb. 21.—On Thursday evening, Feb. 15th, a meeting was held in the Fulford Community Hall to discuss means for raising funds for the hall insurance.

Up to date the hall had an auxiliary organization under Mrs. M. Lee and Mrs. M. Gyves, but at the meeting it was revived and strengthened.

About 22 members were present with representatives from the Board of Trustees, Athletic Club and Women's Institute. Mrs. A. J. Hepburn spoke on behalf of the young people.

It is the first time there has been any co-operation between the young people and the older members, and the young people were heartily welcomed.

Mrs. A. J. Hepburn was elected president; Miss Eileen Cearley, secretary.

All present signed the register to offer their assistance in any way.

Now that the organization has been formed, Mrs. Hepburn would like the whole community to co-operate and any suggestions will be welcome.

SUGGEST THAT ACCIDENT PREVENTION BE CONSIDERED

VICTORIA, Feb. 21.—The suggestion that more consideration be given to accident prevention in small camps as well as in large ones, is contained in the annual report of accidents and fatalities in the logging industry in this province for 1939. The report is made by the Safety Branch of the B.C. Department of Labor, and was released recently by Hon. G. S. Pearson.

Of the 68 fatal accidents, 20 occurred in large camps, and 48 in small camps, and it is upon this record that the suggestion of the Safety Branch is based. (Eight hundred camps operated in British Columbia in 1939, and 746 of these completed the year without a fatality.)

Ten deaths took place in the Interior, east of the Cascades. There were none in Queen Charlotte Island operations, though three large camps were active there during the year.

There were 58 deaths in the camps in the Coast area. Nineteen of these were in the operations of members of the B.C. Logging Association, while 39 took place in non-Association camps.

The report points out that "the Association camps had less than one-third of the fatal accidents in close to two-thirds of the total logging employment in the Coast area," and indicates the latter record, by comparison, of the "loggers' Association camps" may be due to the special accident prevention work undertaken in the past.

LOWER FARES FOR EASTER HOLIDAYS

TO MODERNIZE LOCAL BLOCK FOR BUSINESS

Mrs. W. Thorp, who has been in business with a confectionery store at the southeast corner of Beacon Avenue and Third Street, Sidney, for 11 years, will close shop on Saturday.

The building, which was purchased by Mrs. A. Critchley of the Quick Lunch Cafe, northeast corner of Beacon Avenue and Third Street, some little time ago, is being remodelled and renovated and Mrs. Critchley, who has been obliged to remove from the site mentioned (the old bank building) will reopen her restaurant and lunch counter in her own building.

She is planning considerable alteration and improvement. The store run by Mrs. Thorp, the former quarters occupied by the Local Beauty Parlor and adjoining office formerly occupied by the dentist, will all be united into one floor-space with the removal of the partitions and the laying of a hardwood dancing floor in order that dance-and-dine patrons may be accommodated. LEAP YEAR AT GALIANO ISLE IS PUZZLING?

GALIANO ISLAND, Feb. 21.—"Why, oh why, does Leap Year only come once in four years?" sighed the Galiano ladies as they thought of the Leap Year dance which was held in the Galiano Hall last Friday, and to which they escorted their husbands, sweethearts and friends. Ladies' choice was the order of the evening, and there was no doubt about it, the Galiano ladies knew just how to take care of their men!

Mrs. James Hume made a splendid master of ceremonies, and the crowd of about 50 people all joined in to make a great success of the dance.

Supper time came, and under the watchful eye of Mrs. Phillip Steward, coffee was prepared by several of the young men, but was served to them by the ladies, who did their part with zest.

Music was provided by Mr. Victor Zulu, piano, and R. C. Stevens on the drums, and the dance lasted till the early hours.

AGAIN URGES CONTINUANCE OF SALT SPRING DEVELOPMENT

GANGES, Feb. 21.—The Salt Spring Island Development Association's first committee meeting of the year took place Wednesday evening, last week, in Ganges Inn.

The president, Gavin C. Mouat, who was in the chair, reiterated his views expressed at the annual meeting of Feb. 1st and strongly advised the continuation of the activities of the association in spite of the present situation.

V. Case Morris was appointed as a member of the executive and proposed as secretary.

It was decided to make the original membership fee cover membership for three years.

A discussion on the Fulford-Swartz Bay Ferry route took place, which led to the electing of a committee, A. G. Crofton, P. O'Connell, Gavin C. Mouat and V. Case Morris, to obtain information and report at the next meeting.

The chairman recommended trying to get a certain amount of permanent road construction each year and the following committee was named to act on the matter—J. Manson, R. O. King and W. I. McAfee.

The chairman was asked to get in touch with the Boards of Trade of Nanaimo, Duncan, Ladysmith and Victoria, regarding the matter of the Vesuvius-Crofton Ferry scheme.

Other business discussed included the public tennis courts and the opening of the new high school on April 1st.

YES, "MOTHER CAREY'S CHICKENS" AT REX THEATRE

Bubbling with the humor and naturalness that made the original Kate Douglas Wiggin story one of the best-sellers of its day, the film version of "Mother Carey's Chickens" will be shown on Friday and Saturday at the Rex Theatre, Ganges.

Closely following the book, the film deals with the interesting careers of the Careys. The head of the family, a naval officer, dies during the war with Spain, and his wife and four children, left penniless save for a scanty pension, try to carry on as their father would have wished.

Through the efforts of a young school teacher who is in love with the older daughter, the Careys leave the tenement in which they are living and take over an old, tumble-down house in the country. They remodel it as a teachers' boarding house, but unforeseen complications arise just as they complete the task. The climax is charged with hilarity as the family adopts a unique method of disposing an unpleasant couple who claim their house.

Against this background are played interlocking romances between the two daughters and their respective admirers, all thoroughly steeped in the colorful atmosphere of the late nineties and enriched with Miss Wiggin's sparkling comedy.

Anne Shirley and Ruby Keeler, as the daughters, are cast romantically opposite Frank Albertson (Please turn to Page Four)

MAYNE BRIDE SURPRISED BY HER FRIENDS

MAYNE ISLAND, Feb. 21.—A very happy evening was spent at Mayne Island Hall on Saturday when a shower was given in honor of the bride, Mrs. L. Henshaw.

The evening started with cards and supper, then a prettily decorated wagon, done by Miss Lorna Hardy, was brought in by Miss Phyllis Fernyough, on which was placed a hamper decorated with streamers and wedding bells. This was filled with many nice gifts from her friends, which were unwrapped by the bride and displayed to the guests.

Mr. Henshaw then thanked all, on behalf of his wife and self, for the surprise and lovely gifts.

Then "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung by all, and then followed dancing to music kindly provided by one of the Canadian engineers, on the piano accordion. Then there were games played, which provided hearty laughs for all, and the party broke up a few minutes before 12 p.m.

Many thanks are due to Miss Hardy, who organized the party, and to the Royal Canadian Engineers, who helped make the party the success it was.

Followed, the local orchestra supplying the dance music.

The address was delivered by the Rev. J. L. W. McLean of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Victoria, who laid emphasis on the unique qualities of the late Lord Tweedsmuir. Mr. McLean paid a tribute to the sterling character of the Scottish lad, who, born in a humble manse in the Border country, had reached the highest position in the senior Dominion of the Empire. NOT NEEDING SCHOOL

There have been many rumors about the district to the effect that the North Saanich Consolidated High School was to be taken over by the Department of National Defence, owing to its close proximity to the airdrome. The School Board has been busy for some time in an endeavor to ascertain if the Department required the school building and now have a definite reply from the officials in charge of the Air Force that the school is not wanted. Here is a copy of the information to hand, in part:

"It is now decided that the property will not be of any use to this department and at the same time I am requested to point out that no reason is seen why operations on the Air Station should effect the normal or safe functioning of the school. As is the case elsewhere, they will soon become accustomed to the sight and sound of air craft."

Cash-In-Advance For Political Accounts

In line with the Standards of Practice recommended by the Canadian Weekly Newspapers' Association, a number of B.C. weeklies decided to establish a Cash - In - Advance policy for all local political advertising and printing during the Provincial Election campaign of 1937, and are continuing this policy for the Federal Election this year.

This policy the Review is adopting. Otherwise, some political accounts are promptly paid while others are slow and hard to collect.

Authorization of political accounts often comes from different sources for one party; officers change, candidates change. When payment drags, responsibility for an account becomes obscured, and disputes arise. The Cash - In - Advance policy is best for all concerned.

Jackie Moran and Donnie Dunnagan as the other two "chickens," Ralph Morgan as the ill-fated navy captain-father, Walter Brennan as a typical New England storekeeper and Phyllis Kennedy, Margaret Hamilton, Harvey Clark, Virginia Weidler, George Irving and other well known players contribute to the film's realism.

First appearing in 1910, "Mother Carey's Chickens" proved to be one of the most popular stories ever written. The locales of the story, especially the ramshackle colonial home where the final half of the action takes place, have been faithfully reproduced on the screen.

Pandora S. Berman was in charge of "Mother Carey's Chickens," with S. K. Lauren and Gertrude Purcell translating the Wiggin novel to the screen. Rowland V. Lee directed.

A. CHAMBERS ADDRESSES ELECTORS AT FULFORD HALL

(Continued from Page One) gone from B.C. it was an easy matter to have the story verified or denied. The officer commanding the unit denied its truth and stated that only two men of his unit had been unable to proceed and they were suffering from sickness which could not be attributed to any such source as was stated by Mr. Manion.

Canada, said Mr. Chambers, is united in its effort to win the war, but while bending every effort in this direction we must, he said, keep in mind that we must also prepare for peace. He reminded the audience that in 1935 he had hoped to be returned as member for this constituency so that he could bring to the notice of the Government the great need for some youth training scheme. Even though he was not returned, he felt he had been largely instrumental in having such a scheme put on the statute books and it was being operated successfully. He felt more than ever there was need for some measure of social security, which could be brought about by a contributory scheme of retirement insurance. He asked the audience to vote for him and give him a chance to advance such a scheme on the floor of the House.

The response to the appeal for funds to enable the C.L.W.S.I. to carry on its work among His Majesty's Forces has been very gratifying so far. WOMEN'S AUXILIARY General Meeting

The Women's Auxiliary to the Branch met at the home of the first vice-president, Mrs. C. W. Peck, on Monday, Feb. 19th, at 2:30 p.m., with 21 members present.

Mrs. F. F. King, president, was in the chair.

The meeting opened in the usual manner with an extra minute silence in tribute to the late Governor-General, Lord Tweedsmuir.

Minutes of the last general meeting were read and adopted, also the minutes of the joint meeting of the Branch and Women's Auxiliary on Jan. 29th.

Correspondence was read and suitably dealt with. Mrs. Peck reported on sick visits and letters and flowers sent. Mrs. Livesey offered to supply flowers where necessary.

Treasurer's report read and adopted.

Mrs. E. I. Jones brought a box of clothing and knitted goods ready for dispatch to English evacuees. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. Jones for her work in this regard, also to friends who had helped her.

Resolution to send comforts to sons of members of Women's Auxiliary was passed and a committee appointed to attend to same.

Discussion took place in regard to place of meeting and a motion was adopted to meet alternately in Orange Hall and members' homes.

Suggestions were made as to raising funds for buying comforts and knitting supplies and a card party in Orange Hall was suggested. Date to be announced later and arrangements were left in the capable hands of Mrs. Livesey.

The meeting was brought to a close with the national anthem and the ladies adjourned to the dining room where lunch was served by the hostess, making a pleasant ending to an enjoyable meeting.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE OF MEMORIAM WITNESSED

(Continued from Page One) the career of John Buchan as student, as colleague of Lord Milner in South Africa, as soldier in the Rand Mounted Rifles in the Boer War and as chief intelligence officer in the Great War. Naturally, the late Governor-General's abilities as a writer were dealt with, and his outstanding loyalty to his church favorably mentioned, for it was as an elder of the Kirk that he came to read the lessons in St. Andrew's and First Churches last spring while on his last visit to Victoria.

Mr. McLean in his eloquent and forceful address spoke of Lord Tweedsmuir as a great commoner, a great human and a great Christian. He concluded with a poem written by John Buchan in which his ideals of life, his simple faith, his high purpose, and his love of a quiet life were strikingly exemplified.

Following the address a lament was piped by Capt. C. R. Wilson. Suitable hymns were sung and Miss Elaine Willard accompanied Thanks, Customers and Friends!

I wish to thank all my customers and friends for their support and kind relations during my 11 years in business in Sidney, and wish for them the best of luck and happiness.

Announcement

Mrs. A. Critchley announces that she is not going out of business, but will reopen her cafe in her own building on the southeast corner of Beacon Avenue and Third Street, across the street from the old stand of the Quick Lunch Cafe, in a more up-to-date and modern dance-and-dine establishment.

As soon as the present tenants remove work will commence on the remodelling and renovating of the building and it is expected that the premises will be ready for business about the middle of March.
